Thursday, June 28, 2018

09:00–09:30  Arrival and registration
09:30–10:00  Welcome
10:00–11:00  KEYNOTE 1
MADGALENA NOWICKA (Humboldt University of Berlin): “Performing expertise: Navigating science, state and society as female, migrant and ever too young researcher”
11:00–11:15  Break
11:15–13:15  PANEL 1: ROLES OF MIGRANTICIZED PUBLIC FIGURES IN SOCIETAL DEBATES
Discussant: EUNIKE PIWONI (University of Göttingen)
WILLIAM B NOSEWORTHY (University of Wisconsin-Madison): “Hubert Harrison & Black Socialism: Shifting meanings of the immigration debate in early 20th century”
SONJA MOGHADDARI (MPI-MMG): “Vibrationshintergrund: Intersectional perspectives on migranticized public figures’ positionalities in German debates about immigration”
ELSA MESCOLI (University of Liège): “Between normality and exceptionality: The place of Muslims in society debates in Belgium”
13:15–14:15  Lunch
14:15–15:35  PANEL 2: THINKING BEYOND THE ‘MIGRANT’ RESEARCHER?
Discussant: MILOŠ JOVANOVIĆ (MPI-MMG)
KIJAN ESPhAHANGIZI (ETH Zürich): “Migration scholars with migration background: A historical typology and case study on migration studies in Switzerland since the 1960s”
KESI MAHENDRAN (The Open University): “From ethno-cultures to mobility-cultures – One step towards taking the mobility line”
15:35–15:50  Break
15:50–17:50  PANEL 3: NEGOTIATING MULTIPLE IDENTITIES IN FIELD WORK
Discussant: GULAY TURKMEN (University of Göttingen)
SHAHD WARI (MPI-MMG): “Perspectives on juggling different identities during ethnographic fieldwork”
SHARIF MOHAMMAD HAIDER (The Open University): “A change agent”
AMADU KHAN (independent researcher): “Shifting’ positionalities, reflexivity & ‘ethics’ of representation in refugee research: Opportunities, challenges and resolutions”
17:50–18:05  Break
18:05–19:05  KEYNOTE 2
SHAHRAM KHOSRAVI (Stockholm University): “The Migrant as public intellectual”
from 19:45  Dinner

Friday, June 29, 2018

09:00–11:00  PANEL 4: REFLECTING ON INEQUALITIES ALONG DIFFERENT SHADES OF COLOR
Discussant: MEGHA AMRITH (MPI-MMG)
MERIMA SEHAGIC (Free University of Berlin): “Sameness and belonging in the field: Anthropological perspectives on the study of racialization processes”
LUIS MANUEL HERNANDEZ (Technische Universität Berlin): “Bearded experts and neutral judgments: Racial adscriptions and characterizations in the study of racism”
MIRJAM A. TWIGT (University of Leicester): “Who listens to whom? The politics of care in (forced) migration research in and beyond post-migratory Europe”

11:00–11:15  Break
Discussant: SARA DE JONG (The Open University)
NAWEL AËT ALI (EHESS): “Challenging difference: a reflection on the French setting”
SHPRESA JASHARI (University of Neuchâtel): “De-centering migration research: Approaching cross-border marriage multipositionally and multisitedly”
FADI SALEH (University of Göttingen): “How native is the “native ethnographer”: Challenges and dynamics of doing fieldwork with Syrian LGBTQ refugees as a Syrian gay man”

13:15–14:15  Lunch
14:15–15:45  Working group session and final discussion