Thursday, 15 February 2018, 14:15-16:00

Pamela E. Klassen (University of Toronto)
“Telepathy, empire, and public memory”

Thursday, 1 March 2018, 14:15-16:00

Andrew Selee (Migration Policy Institute)
“Vanishing frontiers: the blurring of the US-Mexico border”

Thursday, 8 March 2018, 14:15-16:00

John Wrench (Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Trondheim)
“Contested understandings of concepts of racial and ethnic discrimination: a critical exploration”

Thursday, 31 May 2018, 14:15-16:00

Phillip M. Ayoub (Drexel University, Philadelphia)
“When states come out: transnational movements and the diffusion of LGBT rights in Europe”

All events take place in the Library Hall, Hermann-Föge-Weg 11

Co-organized by the Department of Ethics, Law and Politics and the Department of Socio-Cultural Diversity